Princess Diana: Life and Conspiracy

- Brief life bio
- Events Leading to Death
- Conspiracy
Princess Diana Life
(1 July 1961 – 31 August 1997)

- On her father's side, she was a descendant of King Charles II of England through four illegitimate sons:
  - Henry Fitzroy, 1st Duke of Grafton
  - Charles Lennox, 1st Duke of Richmond and Lennox
  - Charles Beauclerk, 1st Duke of St Albans
  - James Crofts-Scott, 1st Duke of Monmouth
- She was also a descendant of King James II of England through an illegitimate daughter, Henrietta FitzJames, by his mistress Arabella Churchill.
"Her bitter accusations of adultery, mental cruelty and emotional distress visited upon her by her husband entertained many people, spawning biographies, magazine articles and television movies."

- Cooking, Skiing, Playschool group.
- Diana's aristocratic descent, Church of England faith, presumed virginity and native Englishness appeared to render her a suitable royal bride.
Marriage to Charles

- 24 February 1981
- "Fairytale Wedding"
- Their engagement became official on 24 February 1981, after Diana selected a large £30,000 ring consisting of 14 diamonds surrounding a sapphire, similar to her mother's engagement ring.
"She chose their first given names, defied the royal custom of circumcision, dismissed a royal family nanny and engaged one of her own choosing, in addition to selecting their schools and clothing, planning their outings and taking them to school herself as often as her schedule permitted. She also negotiated her public duties around their timetables."

Is Charles the father?
Controversy

- "Next to surface, in November 1992, were the leaked "Camillagate" tapes, intimate exchanges between Charles and Camilla, published in Today and the Mirror newspapers."

- "In the meantime, rumours had begun to surface about Diana's relationship with Major James Hewitt, her former riding instructor. These would be brought into the open by the publication in 1994 of Princess in Love."
"Diana's Panorama interview, aired in November 1995, was widely regarded as the final cause of the marriage's disintegration."
Diana's fatal car accident.

It was estimated that a total of 2.5 billion people watched the princess's funeral.
Was Diana murdered by the Royal family?

"he conspiracy theories persistently raised by Mohammed Fayed and the Daily Express suggested that she was assassinated. In 2004 a special Metropolitan Police inquiry team, Operation Paget, headed by the then Commissioner Lord Stevens was established to investigate the conspiracy theories."